NOTES

Extraordinary membership is open to: all legal entities, clubs and groups located in Europe, whose main concern is same-sex dancing or LGBT sports including same-sex dancing or are organizing an international same-sex competition, who accept, abide by and comply with the mission statement of the association.

An extraordinary member has at least one vote through their delegate. Legal entities with more than 99 members have two votes (through two delegates).
Each legal entity, club or group has to report the actual number of relevant members (As defined in 12.1.2. of the Constitution) four weeks before the next Annual General Meeting.
Each Extraordinary member has the right to appoint one delegate per vote for the General Meeting. Each delegate should prove this by a written and signed official statement of the member organisation.
